and second degrees in Fairhaven. Joseph Alves was unable to receive his but will have the degrees conferred on him at a later date.

Resolutions on the passing of Mrs. Emma Atkinson were read by Albert Pemberton. A copy will be sent to the family and a copy inserted in the Grange records. A letter was read from the family of Mrs. Atkinson expressing their grateful thanks for the altar flowers placed in the Grace Church in New Bedford by the Grange as a memorial to Mrs. Atkinson, who had been a long time and active member of Mattapoisett Grange.

A vote was taken to change the Grange insurance, for a better advantage to the Grange. The Sippican Pomona programs have arrived and can be obtained from the lecturer. The books carry the programs of Mattapoisett, Marion, Fairhaven, Rochester, South Middleboro, Acushnet, O-Ne-Set, South Carver and West Wareham Granges.

"MUSEUM CROWD" TO MEET

"The Museum Crowd", name this season for the Fine Arts Group of the Mattapoisett Woman's Club, will meet on Wednesday morning, November 1st, at 10 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Charles A. Adams, Ned's Point Road. The program will be given by Mrs. Benjamin Brintnall, the subject of which is the castle museum of the late William Randolph Hearst. This is known as "Enchanted Hill", located in California at San Simeon, situated between Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Mrs. Brintnall, who has visited The Castle and enjoyed its tapestries and other treasures, has secured special materials to augment her presentation, some of it bringing that region of California itself into nearer focus. The setting of the Castle is the right approach to its beauties.

Saving money for the future is the sensible thing to do and it's important to bank where a good interest rate adds up rapidly in dollars and cents. To our way of thinking this all adds up to the fact that the BIG 'W' is the sign of . . . the most "centsable" block to build on.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

After reading the letter to the editor of October 18 opposing public kindergarten for town children, one could envision a program involving a multi-million dollar building program and caviar for the kiddies' lunches.

"Mattapoisett Taxpayer" says that "in effect some homeowners would be faced with an increase in excess of $60 for the first year" and that it would "require additional busing, lunches, special equipment, several teachers, and would absorb any extra rooms that now exist in our school..."

In fact, the kindergarten would cost the town approximately $15,000 a year, of which the town would be eligible for up to 40 per cent state reimbursement for each child of kindergarten age whether he attended the public kindergarten or not. The program would require two full-time teachers, two of six now empty rooms at the Center School, no lunches since there would be split sessions, and the transportation could be handled in full or in part by the parents.

Even if the full $15,000 were applied to the tax rate this would involve about 50 cents per $1,000 valuation, or $5 on a home valuated at $10,000.

But "Mattapoisett Taxpayer" overlooks a more basic issue: the state education board deems kindergarten education so vital that it has mandated it for virtually all communities in the state by 1973. Why does "Mattapoisett Taxpayer" want to dodge this issue? Will the delay and ensuing complications of a last minute program be worth it?

If "Mattapoisett Taxpayer" wants to save a few dollars on his or her tax rate why take it out on children's education?

"TRICK OR TREAT" FOR UNICEF

Once again the Mattapoisett Congregational Couples Club will hold "Trick or Treat for UNICEF" on October 30, 1967. This is an event that this group has sponsored on the last several Halloweens.

UNICEF is the United Nation's Children's Fund, which has helped countless millions of sick and hungry children throughout the country and world. Through food distribution programs, health centers and medical aid training, this organization has saved many a young life which would not have had a chance if UNICEF were non-existent. For each penny that is donated, UNICEF is acquiring purchasing power for five glasses of milk, five vitamin pills or a T. B. immunization.

Information and collection boxes are being distributed through the Mattapoisett Church School to the children for trick or treating for UNICEF on the night prior to Halloween, October 30. Any person, young or old who is interested and wants to participate in this worthy program may call Stetson Drake at 758-2826 for further information.

Collection boxes may be turned in between the hours of 8 P.M. and 10 P.M. at the Congregational Parish Hall, Mechanic and Church Streets, or at the homes of the Messrs. Linwood Lewis, Acushnet Road; Robert Tinkham, Harbor Road; Granville Trow, North Street; Jarvis Stratton, Marion Road; James Lamborghini, Oakland Street; or Stetson Drake, North Street.
